

Guide
uniform worn by Judith Anne Hunter

Brownie uniform worn by Judith Anne Hunter

Shield – pyrography by Judith Anne Hunter – for cub of the term reward at 16th Lancaster Maclean
Cub Pack

'Cub jumper' made for Trixie the cat by Joan Lambton. Kandersteg necker modified by Joan Lambton to have white edge to match 16th Lancaster where Trixie's human, Judith Anne Hunter, was a leader.

Young Leader uniform made by Joan Lambton to fit a doll. The purple necker was used on the Water For Africa 1992 project which Judith Anne Hunter participated in. <https://j-a-h.net/wp-content/uploads/wfa.pdf>

Guide camp dress and hat made by Judith Anne Hunter for going to Mexico in 1989. <https://j-a-h.net/adventures/north-america/mexico/>

Not a uniform item but the material was so appropriate for the UK. Made by Joan Lambton for a trip to Our Chalet in 1992.

Brownie t-shirt (bought). Guide t-shirt designed and made by Joan Lambton for Judith Anne Hunter.

Brownie, Guide, and Trefoil Guild aprons designed and made by Joan Lambton. Brownie and Guide ones belonged to Judith Anne Hunter.

Brownie and Guide bags made by Joan Lambton for Judith Anne Hunter.

Wolf Cub belt – bought by Joan Lambton

Scout belt – worn by Judith Anne Hunter

Original Scout belt c.1910 from Bill Lee – Uncle of Joan Lambton, Great Uncle of Judith Anne Hunter

Kenya Scout belt – bought by Judith Anne Hunter in Nairobi, Water for Africa 1992

Swiss Scout belt – bought by Judith Anne Hunter in Kandersteg, 1992

Scouts Canada belt, bought by Joan Lambton, 1989